

One of the best aspects of our free market is the fact of COMPETITION. Rather than competing in the market place the NAB has decided to try and get their way thru the courts. Don't let them influence this issue and let XM radio continue to compete in this marketplace. If the members of the NAB can't come up with a product that will compete then they don't deserve to be in this market.